

StabiLISatorlager*

*part of us

PROJECT MANAGER

The bilstein group is a dynamically expanding group of affiliated companies with about 2.000 employees worldwide and headquarters in Germany. We produce and distribute spare-parts for the most notable automobile cars and trucks through the after-sales market.

Job Description

- Planning and leading the implementation of the project,
- Helping define the project area, goals and achievements,
- Defining project tasks and resource requirements,
- Developing project plans,
- Gathering and coordination of project employees,
- Projecting budget of the project,
- Planning and scheduling project deadlines,
- Monitoring the progress of the project using the appropriate technique,
- Directing and providing support to the project team,
- Quality assurance of projects,
- Constant monitoring and reporting on project progress for all stakeholders,
- Presenting reports - defining progress, problems and solutions,
- Implementing and managing the changes in the execution of project activities and intervening to achieve project outputs,
- Proposing creative and profitable ideas, solutions, designs and concepts to better implement projects,
- Project evaluation and assessment of results.

Requirements

- BS/MS degree in a related field
- Ambitious, fast learner and ready to take on a challenge
- Working experience in project management
- PC literacy (Excel, Word, PowerPoint)
- Fluency in English

Benefits

- Private health insurance
- Individual development plan
- Work in an international environment
- Discount on our products
- Other perks

You want to take new challenges?
Then we look forward to your detailed application.
Become part of an already successful company with strong potential for further dynamic growth.

For more information or to discuss this opportunity further, send your CV.